The senate finance committee begins consideration of the income tax simplification bill and the house may and means committee takes up a measure increasing the national debt limit.

At the same time, tax leaders are understood to have agreed on early creation of an "advisory council" representing all segments of the tax-paying public to assist in the framing of future revenue legislation.

The administration is mapping plans to submit alternative proposals to congress for a vast unemployment benefits scheme to tide over those who may be put out of work when war production ends.

Artillery Fire Stepped Up On Italian Front

British Destroyers Blast Nazi Transport Along Albanian Coast

By JAMES L. KILGALLIN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)
NAPLES, May 8.—Stepped-up artillery action on many sectors of the main Fifth Army front in Italy was reported today coincident with bombardments of German supply dumps and positions in the Anzio beachhead area by United States destroyers.

Blast Nazi Transport
British destroyers at the same time were reported to have blasted Nazi transport along a road on the Albanian coast south of Valona. Headquarters said that the shelling of enemy supply bases and defense points in the battle area immediately below Rome by the American warships obtained good results.

Medium bombers and fighter-bombers of the Mediterranean Air Force maintained concentrated assaults against supply dumps and shipping along the west coast of Italy. Other aircraft relentlessly kept up attacks against bridges and rail lines northward from Rome where the Germans now are beginning to feel the pinch of sustained assaults against communications.

Hammer German Shipping
Allied planes also hammered at German shipping and supply points along the Dalmatian coast in support of operations by Marshal Josip (Tito) Broz Yugoslav Partisan forces.

Artillery fire was particularly heavy in both the upper and lower Garigliano river valley sectors. Allied big guns opened up along the upper Garigliano with a two-hour barrage to repulse a penetration into Allied advance positions by strong German patrols in the Monte Ornito area, three miles south of San Andrea.

German artillery fire along the lower Garigliano was described by headquarters as heavy.

Northwest of Cassino there was both artillery and mortar fire. Inside Cassino itself considerable German night movement was reported and the Allies engaged the Germans with good effect. German harassing fire was said to have increased and enemy motor transport movements were heard west and south of the town.

The beachhead area was quiet except for the shelling, which included heavy German artillery fire directed against the Carano area.

Believe Reds Prepare For Huge Offensive

By MAJOR PAUL R. RABORG
(Written Especially for U.S.S.)

NEW YORK, May 8.—Sunday was the 16th consecutive day in which Moscow reported there was no ground activity in any area of the Russian battlefield. Naturally the question uppermost in most persons' minds is "why?" The usual answer given is correct. It is the calm before the storm, the prelude before offensive operations on a greater scale than anything as yet hurled at the Axis armies. It is the prelude to the much heralded attacks against fortress Europe from the east, from the south and from the west.

New Plans Ready
Knowing the past successful strategic operations on Marshal Stalin's Soviet armies we may be certain that the new plans about to be put into effect are smart.

During that 16-day period, Nazi news sources have announced various offensives and combat operations—in Poland, in Romania, and the Germans claim last Saturday that Soviet ground forces in the (Continued On Page Two)

Hershey Confers With Draft Heads

Seeks To Eliminate Confusion Existing On Selective Service Draft Procedure

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Major Gen. Lewis B. Hershey reviewed recent Selective Service action with the 48 state draft directors today in an effort to eliminate confusion and promote uniform national compliance with orders from Washington.

Some 53 local officials, including selective service representatives from Hawaii, Alaska and other United States territories, came to the capital for a three-day series of conferences with the national draft chief that will touch upon the whole field of selective service problems.

Lieut. Col. James T. Coatsworth, aide to Hershey, said no new policy decisions will be formulated at the sessions. The principal task will be to iron out conflicting handling of present deferment regulation.

Despite instructions from national headquarters to local draft boards some men over 26 in essential activities are receiving induction notices daily. Several weeks ago Hershey banned the induction of older men until the under-26 category had been exhausted. Men over 26 not in essential activities are subject to call at any time, although these too are not supposed to be processed until the supply of younger men is substantially exhausted.

Tito's Forces Launch Drive

LONDON, May 8.—(INS)—Marshal Josip (Tito) Broz Yugoslav Partisans, having crippled an abortive German offensive, seized the initiative today and launched a strong drive, which ousted the enemy from several important villages.

The Free Yugoslav radio reported that the 34th Battalion of Ustashi Fascist troops was routed and at least three large towns in Slovenia occupied by the patriots. At nearly all points of the front the Tito men now are in the offensive, the statement indicated, while other groups are striking at enemy communications and supplies in the rear areas.

An earlier communique reported that the Tito forces also were engaged in fighting the Chetnik troops of Gen. Draja Mihailovich.

President Back In Washington

Returns From Month Spent In South Carolina Much Improved

MAY BE SIGNAL INVASION NEAR

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 8.—President Roosevelt, his health restored by a month's fishing in the Carolina sun, plunged with renewed vigor today into the complex domestic and international problems of a nation at war as huge American armies poised in Britain awaited the Nazi for their assault against Nazi-occupied Europe.

The chief executive summoned his congressional leaders to the White House for a conference following his return Sunday from a four-week recuperative rest on the 23,000-acre plantation of Bernard M. Baruch near Georgetown, S. C.

With them, Mr. Roosevelt was to explore domestic problems that have developed in his absence and map out future congressional strategy during the coming weeks before congress recesses for the mid-summer political conventions.

Sunday morning, on his return to the capital, the chief executive was met by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, who motored with him to the White House for an immediate up-to-the-minute review of the international situation.

The president's return to Washington was viewed as a signal that the allied invasion of western Europe might now be touched off at any time. It was felt that Mr. Roosevelt would make a point to be in the White House at the hour Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the allied supreme commander, gives the command for the grand assault.

By GEORGE LAIT
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HQ, New Guinea, May 8.—American and Australian bombers continuing the unremitting aerial offensive in the southwest Pacific were revealed today to have blasted Japanese positions from the Dutch East Indies to Bougainville with more than 132 tons of bombs.

In assaults against ground positions American heavy and medium units hit Kupang and Perfid airbases at Timor with over 30 tons of explosives. Two parked planes were destroyed in the attack and fires and explosions were observed in the airbase areas.

Medium units struck Namlea township on Buru island in a night attack while other medium bombers hit Tual and surrounding airfields on Kei Island.

Japanese Open General Attack In Eastern India

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

KANDY, Ceylon, May 8.—Japanese forces in Eastern India have opened a general offensive on all sectors of the Manipal Hills front, headquarters of the Southeast Asia command reported today.

The Nipponese counter-attacked strongly against British and Indian troops seeking to oust them from Eastern India. In every case where the Japs sought to regain their forward positions from which they have been pushed in recent days they offered heavy casualties, the communique said.

Allied patrols penetrated 28 miles north of Imphal on the Kohima road, the communique reported.

Capture Two Villages
In the hills northeast of Palai, 20 miles below Imphal, the Allies captured two villages.

Headquarters revealed that in fighting in the Buhadung sector of Northwest Burma 350 Japanese had been killed.

A strategic retirement by troops under British command from Buthidaung, Northwest Burma, was carried out to place the Allied line in a more favorable position and was not made under enemy pressure, headquarters emphasized.

In the Kohima area of India British units consolidated newly-won positions and were reported holding their gains securely against repeated but unsuccessful Jap counter-attacks.

Around Imphal, capital of Manipal State, 60 miles to the south, the Japs were reported retreating to the northeast.

Aerial Blows On Sevastopol Are Increased

May Presage All Out Attack By Reds On Last Nazi Crimean Stronghold

By NATALIA RENE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, May 8.—Intensified aerial blows against beleaguered Sevastopol, possibly presaging an all out attack on the last German Crimean stronghold, were reported today by the Soviet high command.

Increased Soviet naval action in the Black Sea, with the destruction of four German transports totalling 10,000 tons, sinking of four other craft, and damaging of two other transports was also revealed.

On the first Ukraine front, surrender of an entire platoon of the 24th Hungarian Infantry was announced.

Aerial Activity Grows
The aerial activity over Sevastopol grew in intensity as Red bombers struck at German defense positions, concentrations of fire power, and masses of German-Romanian troops. Other bombers blasted airfields, supply center and ships in the port.

The Russian communique announced heavy German losses as bombers roared over Sevastopol. Twenty-two German aircraft were destroyed on the ground or in the air in the Sevastopol area alone. A total of 41 German planes destroyed by aerial action or anti-aircraft fire on all sections of the front was reported in the communique.

The attack on Sevastopol was credited with silencing many German artillery positions and blowing up four ammunition dumps. As Black Sea naval action continued, Soviet torpedo boats were credited with destroying three German transports, totalling 7,000 tons, and two high speed landing barges in an assault west of the port.

Sink Transport
Red Air Force bombers were credited with sinking a 3,000 tons transport and two patrol cutters and seriously damaging two other transports.

During fighting on the first Ukraine front the Soviet communique reported surrender of several groups of Hungarian soldiers and officers.

The 3rd platoon of the 6th company, 24th Hungarian Infantry was said to have surrendered in a body, crossing to the Russian lines through the fire of German machine guns turned on them.

Huge Raids Against Berlin In Daylight Second Successive Day

FRANCE-BELGIUM ARE ALSO BOMBED

By JOHN E. LEE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, May 8.—Bombers and fighters of the U.S. Eighth Air Force, estimated at 2,000 strong, made a second successive daylight assault on Berlin today to carry the mighty Allied pre-invasion bombardment of the continent into the 22nd straight day.

Fortress and Liberator formations also hammered the Brunswick area, site of Nazi aircraft production plants 110 miles west of the German capital.

Very Strong Forces
Headquarters of the Eighth Air Forces said that "very strong forces" of American heavy-weight bombers participated in the raid against the heart of the Reich after night bombers from Britain and the Mediterranean hurled devastating new assaults against Nazi supply concentrations and communications in France, Germany and Romania.

While the big bombers hammered at the Nazi capital, 200 medium Marauders blasted military objectives in northern France and an important rail bridge on the outskirts of Rouen. British Spitfires made up the escorting force.

Attack In Belgium
A DNB (Nazi) dispatch heard in London reported that the Belgian rail center of Mechelen was attacked during the morning for the fifth time in seven days. Considerable damage was acknowledged.

Ackack Brigade Worry Germans

Anzio Beachhead Defenders
Who Man Aircraft Guns
Have Luftwaffe On Edge

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—After spending 77 consecutive days at the Anzio beachhead, First Lieutenant Jack L. Mullin, Waycross, Georgia, attached to an anti-aircraft brigade, here-with gives exclusively to International News Service his own impressions of the experience. Mullin is an ex-newspaper man.)

By FIRST LT. JACK L. MULLIN
With A Fifth Army Anti-Aircraft
Brigade

(As Told to James L. Kilgallen,
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

SOMEWHERE IN ITALY, May 8.

(INS)—The ackack oys on the beachhead have the Luftwaffe worried. And I might add, stopped.

I've just come back from 77 straight days in the Anzio area where I've been working with what I regard as the world's best ackack brigade.

The Luftwaffe used to raid us night after night but they've been cooled off.

Many Planes Downed

I'm on the staff of a Fifth Army anti-aircraft brigade which I'm sure has shot down more German planes in a corresponding period than any other ackack brigade.

Every time the Luftwaffe came over in morning raids they'd lose 30 to 40 per cent of their planes. They used to raid us in formations of from 50 to 65 heavy bombers.

On night raids the Luftwaffe used to come over with a force of 50 to 60 bombers. We sure knocked them off. Finally the Germans were forced to abandon night attacks.

We'd get close to 50 per cent of the Luftwaffe's night bombers any time they'd send over from seven to 20 planes.

The Luftwaffe tried every conceivable type of bombing at the beachhead.

Beat Them Off

Our ackack boys beat them off every time.

The Luftwaffe today cannot get near the port of Anzio. They can't get through the heavy flak we shoot up.

Our aircraft identification is superb. Our brigade can spot anything in the air. It has been through the campaigns in Tunisia, Sicily, Salerno and Southern Italy. The men worship their commanding general.

Our ackack boys don't scare easily and are wise to the Luftwaffe's deception tactics. The enemy knows we are well dug in so they put down air bursts timing them with their air attack in an effort to neutralize the ackack.

But the ackack boys stick to their guns and the Germans have learned they cannot drive them to the fox holes. They simply won't stampede.

I'd say the ackack show on the beachhead is one of the greatest spectacles on earth.

Chicago's Field Museum Has Part In War Effort

CHICAGO—(INS)—Comparatively few persons in the country know of the vital part played in the war effort by the Chicago Field Museum which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this month.

The museum is not a place one ordinarily would associate with war. It has been a symbol of orderly, scientific achievement in a peaceful world for so long.

Yet, almost every day, the Army and the Navy call on its scientists for information.

To illustrate: One Army officer with a contingent of men who were to leave soon for New Guinea, wanted to know something of the geography, the natives, the disease-carrying insects, the edible and non-edible plants of the locality.

These are life-saving facts he was after. And, within a few hours, pamphlets were assembled and notes compiled for him by specialists in each field.

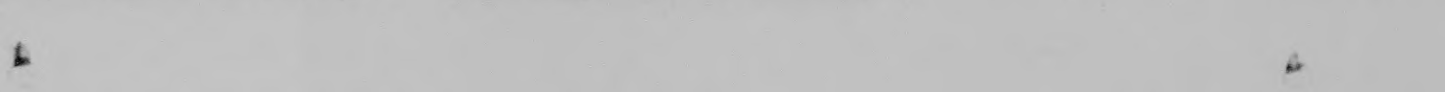

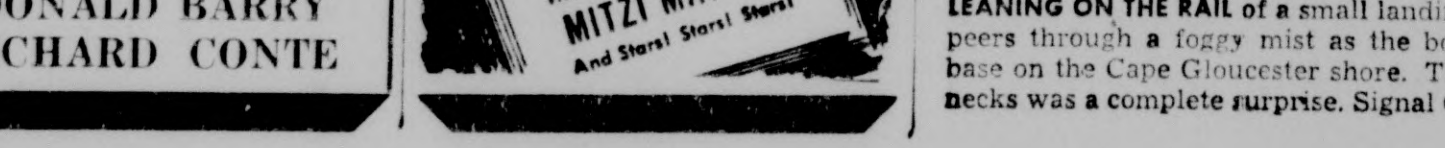

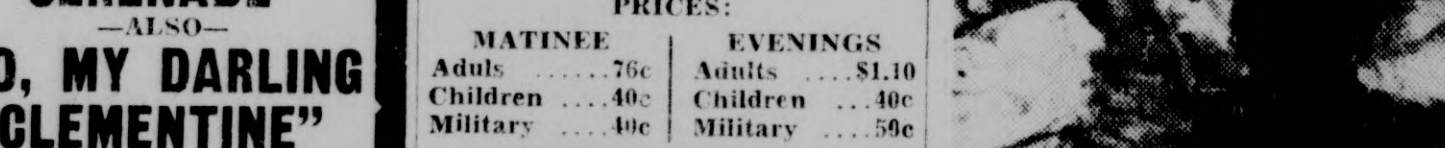

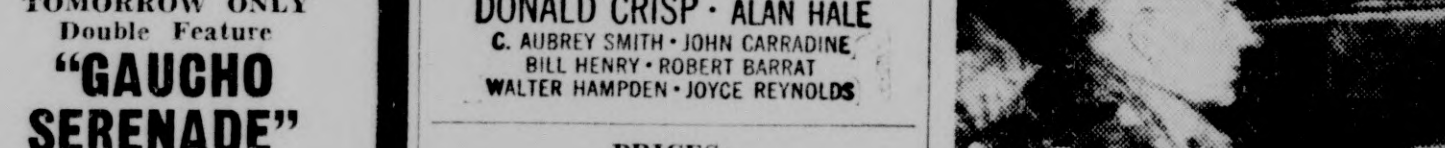

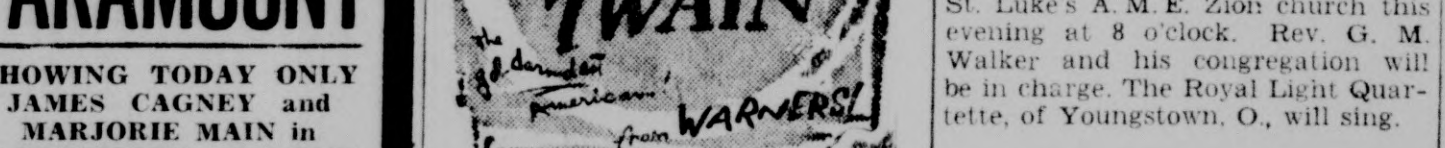

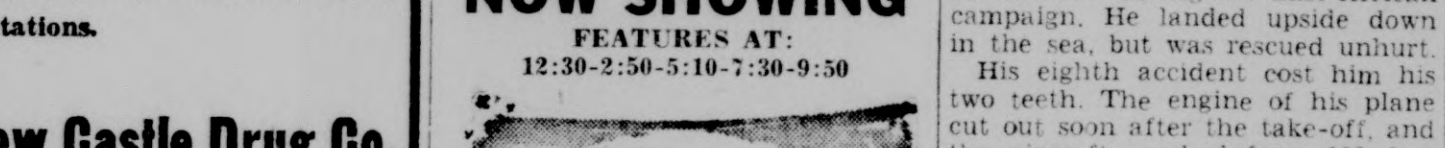

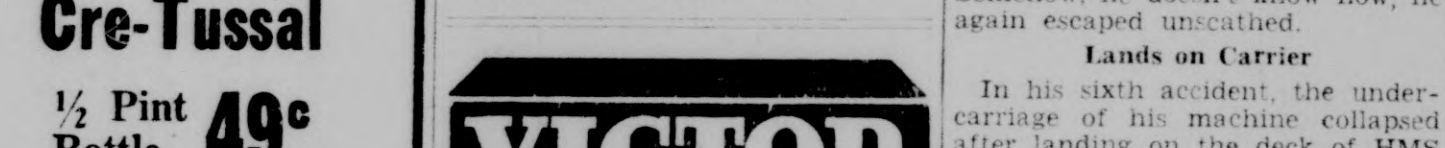

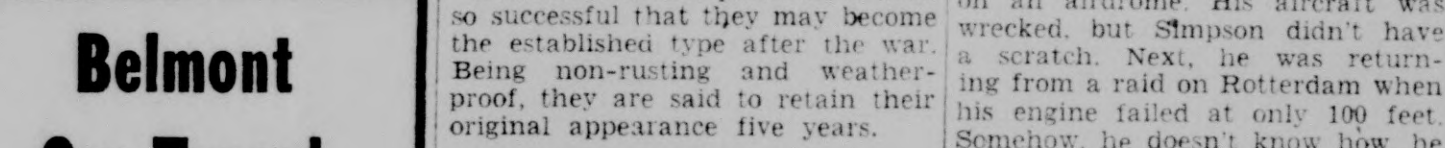

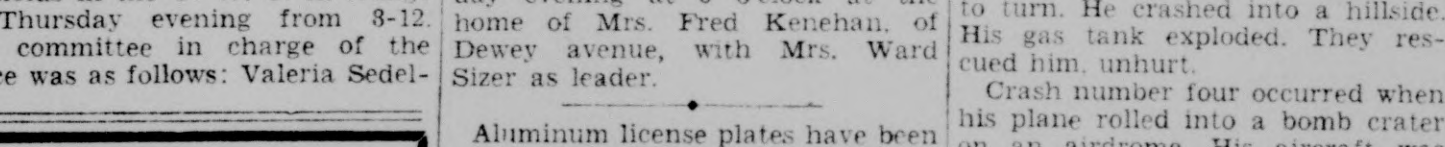

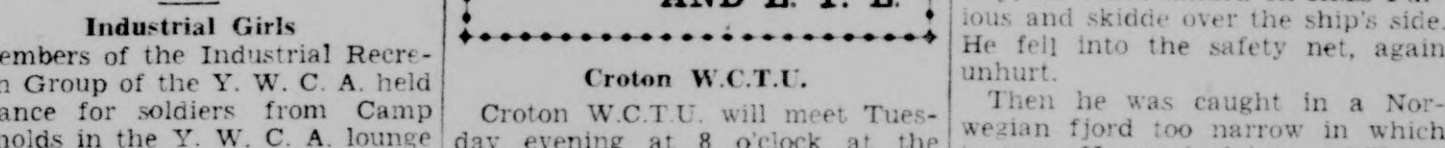

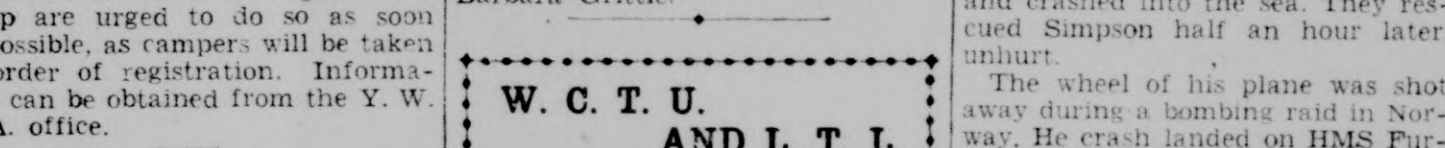

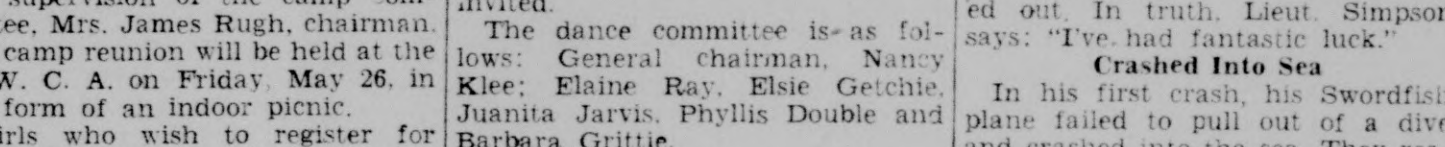

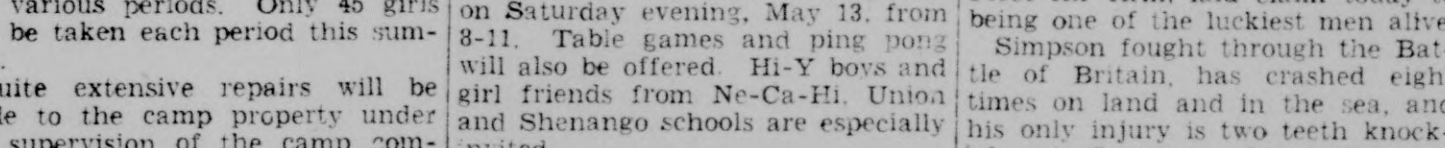

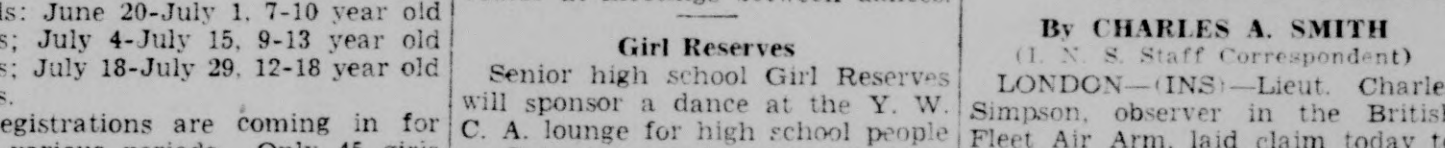

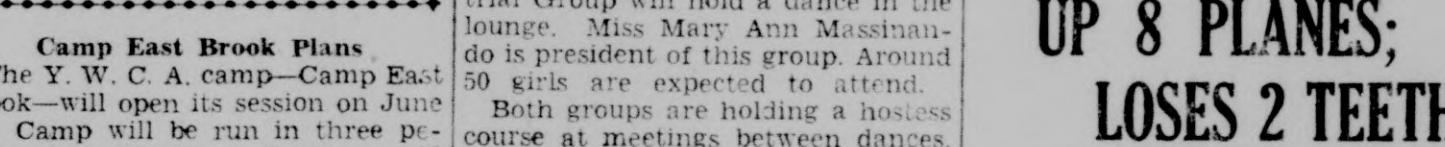

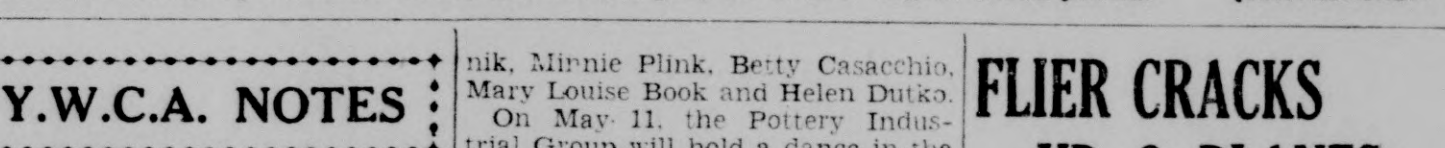

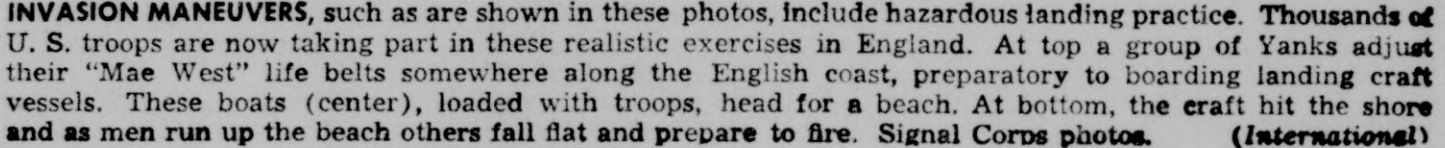

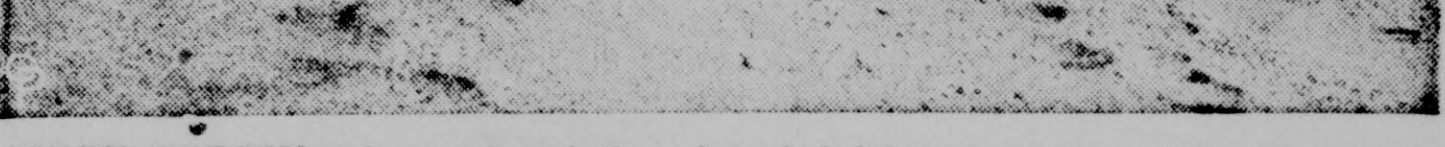

The local customs of Mohammedans, Arabs, and native Frenchmen were known to our invasion forces long before they landed on the beaches of North Africa. Much of the information with which they were fortified had been assembled by the Museum staff.

Karl P. Schmidt, chief curator of zoology, is a leader in the work of providing information and technical data to the armed forces.

The Museum's vast libraries of anthropological, zoological, and geological knowledge from all over the world are used as reference rooms both by scientists and by military technicians in search of information.

Gymnast Ganu Here
Splendid SuccessDelegations From Many Points Attend Twenty-First Anniversary Of Event

There was a splendid attendance at the Gymnast Ganu (Welsh Hymn Singing Assembly), Sunday afternoon and evening at the First Congregational church; delegations came from Canton, Akron, Youngstown, Rock Creek, Ohio, Johnstown, Sharon and Ellwood City.

The day opened with a stirring Welsh sermon by Rev. T. J. Jones, the pastor, Sunday morning, with Welsh congregational singing.

In the afternoon, Henry T. Jones presided. Meeting opened with singing of "America," and salute to the flag led by Misses Peggy Long and Gean Turner. Prof.

William R. Hughes of Scranton directed the Welsh hymn singing by the large chorus choir and congregation, which was done in splendid style and fervor.

Rev. T. J. Jones was in charge of the devotional period. Dave Lewis gave a couple of vocal solos in splendid style. The singing of Welsh National Anthem, "Hen Wlad Fy Nhadau" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" concluded the afternoon session. Misses Anna Mae Smith and Betty Fowler presided at the organ and piano, respectively.

The Willing Workers Ladies class served tea and other "Welsh goodies" in the dining room to visitors, after the afternoon session. At the evening session there was a capacity crowd, with another period of enthusiastic Welsh singing. Professor Hughes was well satisfied with the quality of the singing. He is the only cousin of Mrs. T. J. Jones in this country, and was guest of Rev. and Mrs. Jones.

Men Over 26 In Essential Work
Not To Be CalledDraft Procedure Is Outlined By State Draft Director For
PresentBy RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, May 8.—Draft boards in the state were cautioned again today that men 26 and over who are employed in war essential jobs are not to be inducted.

Deputy state draft director John MCI. Smith, when advised that certain boards were considering calling them up, asserted flatly:

"No board has the right to call up—either for processing or induction—any man 26 or over who is employed in a war industry or any man working in any capacity in any of the activities covered by the activities and occupational bulletins." The latter includes 35 industries listed some time ago by the war manpower commission. Farmers receive blanket deferment if they meet certain requirements.

All In Essential Work Affected
The ban on the processing and induction of men 26 and over covers all registrants employed in an essential industry, regardless of what positions they hold, he emphasized. Thus, for example, he said, a janitor working for a newspaper can not be inducted now if he is 26 as he is employed in an essential industry. Volunteers can be inducted.

Smith said that any man 26 and over in an essential industry who is called up for his induction by his draft board should file an appeal if necessary with state selective service headquarters at Harrisburg. "Whenever we find out that boards are not on the beam, we try to straighten them out," he explained.

"What if a board is unable to fill its quotas without calling up these men?" Smith was asked.

"Quotas need not be filled," he pointed out, citing instructions to the effect issued by national selective service director Lewis B. Hershey.

Smith added that the induction ban would remain in effect until lifted by national selective service headquarters in Washington.

Hershey's order does not affect the induction of men 26 or over who are employed in non-essential industries.

Smith said he was unable to say when the ban on inductions of essential workers 26 and over would be lifted, but in Baltimore Friday Hershey predicted that they would probably not be called up "until early fall" at least.

Regarding men 26 and over who are now deferred, Smith explained that when the deferments expire the men are notified that they have been placed in 1-A for an "indefinite" period, subject to new rulings which may be handed down later from Washington. In the meantime he said, their inductions will be postponed.

Congressman
Urges Clocks Be Set Back Hour

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Representative Clarence Cannon, Missouri, Democrat who thinks the nation could set up its morale by setting back its clocks, will be given a hearing Thursday on his bill to abolish daylight saving time.

Cannon declares that national war time, ordered by Congress in February, 1942, has—

"Deprived millions of a needed hour of sleep on sultry nights;

"Saved no electric power or light;

"Wasted manpower and farm products; and

"Added confusion and distress to the already tense war situation."

High-Ranking Nips
Go Down In Flames

ATLANTIC CITY, May 8.—(INS)—Staff Sgt. George S. Chase of Ionia, Mich., told today how a Japanese transport plane, loaded with high-ranking army generals accidentally joined a group of U. S. bombers in the South Pacific and was quickly disposed of.

"The ship came out of a cloud bank over Dutch New Guinea," said Chase, formerly a gunner aboard a Liberator bomber. "She rode along with us for a while and then one of the boys asked: 'Since when do our planes have a red circle insignia?'"

"We closed in and all started shooting at once. The ship seemed to disintegrate before our firepower."

Next day, said Chase, "Madam Tokyo," admitted the loss and identified the high-ranking Japanese passengers.

Expect Decisions In Ward Company Dispute This Week

Federal Court Expected To Decide
If President Exceeded Authority In Case

CHICAGO, May 8.—(INS)—A week of far-reaching decisions was in prospect today in the finish fight between the government and Montgomery Ward & Co. big mail order house taken over for federal operation April 26.

In one of them, a Federal court will decide in effect whether President Roosevelt exceeded his wartime powers in ordering seizure of the Chicago properties of the company, second largest of its kind in the United States.

In another, members of a C.I.O. union, which recently called a 12-day strike at the Ward plant, will vote to determine if their organization still is entitled to exclusive collective bargaining rights with Montgomery Ward.

In the third, Paul D. Sowell, assistant to the operating manager of the company, will appear before U. S. Commissioner Edwin K. Walker to answer the charge of "taking certain property of the government with intent to commit a deprecation."

The "property" in this case was a placard posted on the company bulletin board giving notice that dismissals made by company officials subsequent to April 26, date of seizure by the government, were void and that future dismissals likewise would be void unless approved by the government manager in charge.

The most important decision by far, in its national implications, will come at 10 a. m. Wednesday when Federal Judge William H. Holt is to rule on the government's petition that the temporary injunction now in effect against company officials be made permanent.

Country Club In Los Angeles Area Destroyed By Fire

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—(INS)—The second major country club fire in the Los Angeles area within a week left the exclusive Hillcrest Country club in ruins today with an estimated loss of more than $150,000.

The clubhouse burned to the ground late yesterday, the three-alarm blaze causing approximately 450 persons in the dining or locker rooms, many of them movie celebrities, to flee.

The fire broke out on the roof of one of the wings of the picturesque 24-year-old, colonial style clubhouse. Faulty wiring was believed by firemen to have caused the blaze.

Only last Thursday the nationally known Midway Country club at Pasadena burned to the ground at an estimated loss exceeding $100,000.

Burma Campaign Going 'Little Slow'

But It's Not 'Too Bad' Says Lieut. Gen. Stilwell In Charge Of Situation

By JAMES E. BROWN
U. S. Staff Correspondent

LIEUT. GEN. JOSEPH W. STILLWELL'S HQ. IN BURMA, May 8.—"Vinegar Joe" Stilwell, the American Lieutenant General who vowed that his Chinese forces would reclaim Burma after he and his troops were driven into India by superior number of Japs, declared today that his counter-offensive against the Japanese is "a little slow but not too bad."

Gen. Stilwell was busy discussing future strategy with his aides at his jungle headquarters when visited by this correspondent. It was nearly midnight then and after the staff meeting was finished the general talked on into the early morning hours.

Asked how he felt the campaign was going on in general, the veteran Far East fighter who is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's deputy commander said:

"I always want more than I accomplish, but I cannot say I am dissatisfied."

The dull boom of Japanese 150-millimeter guns could be heard in the distance, Gen. Stilwell squinted.

"No, I can't kick," he said reflectively. "The campaign is not finished."

When war correspondents first enjoined Stilwell's forces back in January the Allies controlled only about one-third of the Hukawng valley. Now they are in possession of the entire valley. In addition, they have gained control of two-thirds of the Mogaung Valley.

These advances have brought them to within striking distance of important objectives.

Asked if the recent capture of the Japanese stronghold of In-kangaitawng, where the Allies had been held up for two weeks by the enemy, would figuratively open the door to the remainder of the Mogaung Valley, Stilwell replied:

"I never predict. It could be, and I hope so."

Battle Scarred Plane Retired

DENVER, May 8.—(INS)—"Mission completed," will be entered today in the log of the "beautiful girl," a medium bomber that has been in constant service in the South Pacific since Dec. 7, 1941.

The ship will land today at San Antonio, Tex., where it will be taken out of commission. The battle-scarred B-25, a veteran of 92 combat missions, has been in service throughout the entire Solomon campaign.

Its most spectacular flight was a one-man bombing raid on Rabaul.

Lt. James Cook of Williamsburg, Va., was pilot of the "beautiful girl" that day. He also was navigator, bombardier, crew chief and gunner. He took off alone and flew to Rabaul, set the automatic pilot and let the ship fly itself while he dropped the bombs.

Flak battered the ship badly, but Lt. Cook got it home.

Report Red Attack On Kotka Harbor

NEW YORK, May 8.—(INS)—A Soviet squadron of 20 fighter-escorted dive-bombers attacked Kotka harbor on the Gulf of Finland today, the Finnish radio reported.

"Some material damage was caused," said the broadcast, reported by U. S. government monitors.

So uniform is Hawaii's climate that natives have no word for weather.

Berlin Factories Being Crushed

American And British Fliers Damage 74 Factories During Month Of March

LONDON, May 8.—(INS)—The British Air Ministry revealed today American and R. A. F. raids on Berlin during March smashed 74 factories.

Heaviest bomb damage in the battered German capital was concentrated in four districts: Steglitz, Wilmersdorf, Schöneberg and Charlottenburg.

Steglitz, blasted in an attack March 24, still was burning fiercely the day after the assault. The last three districts, which suffered heavily in previous attacks, are among the most devastated areas of Berlin.

One of the most important plants producing electrical apparatus in Germany, the Siemens and Halske Works, was one of the 74 factories hit by more than one raid.

PENSIVE SWEEPS TO VICTORY BY THREE LENGTHS IN DERBY

Out in front by three lengths, Pensive (1) sweeps across the finish line at Churchill Downs, above, to win the 70th running of the Kentucky Derby, classic of American racing. Second is Broadcloth (2), while Stir Up (3), the pre-race favorite by a heavy margin, loses his way out of the pack to take the show spot.

Pensive Wins Derby Classic

Broadcloth Is Second, With Stir Up Third, As 70,000 Watch Race Saturday

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 8.—(INS)—Pensive is going to be forced to prove it. Approximately 70,000 spectators saw him win the Kentucky Derby and thrilled to one of the greatest horse races ever run anywhere, but somehow few believe that he was as good as he ran on Saturday and they want him to repeat in the Preakness at Baltimore and possibly in some other events before they will accept the Calumet star as a true champion.

His run for the wire was a spectacular thing to watch as he overhauled and beat off Broadcloth and the odds-on favorite, Stir Up. His time of 2:04 1/5 was commendable on a track that had changed from sloppy to good overnight. His race from flag-fall to finish was just about all you could ask of a colt that was purposely taken back to 13th in the running at one point and several times was in trouble. Still they want him to do it again and he is going to get his chance.

Preakness Next
Next Saturday he will go up against Stir Up, Alton, Grams Image, Gay Bit and Skytrac from the derby field among others in the Preakness and in this one will be able to prove that he is the best of the three-year-olds.

The derby, a tremendous spectacle the way it was run, was one of the big upsets of recent years in its outcome, considering that Stir Up was supposed to be unbeatable and that Pensive was started only under the insistence of his jockey, Conn McCreary, and Jimmy Jones, the son of Trainer Ben Jones.

Reluctantly, Ben Jones shipped his horse from Baltimore, where he had been beaten in the Chesapeake, or so the story goes, and then the bay plates which he has been wearing because of a tender hoof were removed. He was in the derby under the best possible conditions obtainable for him.

SWAP PLAYERS

PENSIVE WITH WINNER'S WREATH AFTER DERBY

The winner's wreath is worn, above, by Warren Wright's Pensive, Jockey Con McCreary up, after the 70th running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. Holding the victor's bride is trainer Ben Jones, who has had two previous derby winners, Lawrin and Whirlaway.

MOOSE BOWLERS ENJOY BANQUET

Sixty Gather Sunday Night For Feast And To Honor Leather-necks, Champs

Ring down the curtain on the '943-44 bowling season, some sixty members of the Moose Club tenpin league and their guests sat down last evening at the club banquet tables and partook of a spaghetti and fried chicken dinner. The event began at 6 o'clock.

Following the serving of the dinner, L. S. "Mac" MacKinnon, junior-governor and M. C. at the Moose Club took over and after a few fine remarks on the success of the league said that the club will support wholeheartedly the baseball and golf teams this summer.

Pat Koops, veteran bowler in the absence of President Homer Miles, in the navy, assumed the toast-master role, and held sway with his ready wit and humor, as he called on the following captains for talks: Leathernecks, champions of the league—"Fiz" Rodenbaugh, Bombers—Paul Lascola, also secretary and treasurer of the league, Art Progetti, of the Commanders, Paul Kuhla, representing vice-president Carm DeLone, who was captain of the Artillery team; Dave Nathanson of the Gunners; and Cliff Patterson of the Navigators. Other teams in the league were the Rangers and Jeeps, eight teams in all.

Promises Full Support
Governor George Gettings of the Moose Club was a guest and promised the bowlers as well as the ball players and golfers the support of the club 100%. Fred Schmidt of West Pittsburg was introduced as the oldest member of the league, and it was announced that George Snook with a 133 mark led the league in average.

League Races Getting Tight

Cardinals Take Two From Reds To Grab Lead, Browns Top American League

By JOHN CASHMAN
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, May 8.—A more dramatic tightening-up of the pennant races in both leagues is in evidence today, and nowhere more evident than in St. Louis. The Browns, masters of the American league (for now, anyway), are musing over their first series loss of the season and the Cards are tending the National league lead, which they re-won only after some torrid squabbling.

The fifth-place Cleveland Indians were the boys who edged out the Browns, two games to one, in the latter's first series setback. The Indians did it by splitting a twin bill with the Browns yesterday, losing the first game, 7 to 4, and winning the nightcap, 3 to 2, to add to Saturday's Cleveland triumph.

The Chicago White Sox, generally mentioned in pre-season dope as a power club, began their bid in the pennant race by trouncing the Detroit Tigers in both ends of a twin bill, 4 to 1 and 4 to 2, before a crowd of 25,151.

Pirates Win Two
The Washington Senators and Philadelphia Athletics divided a twin bill, the Senators taking the first game, 2 to 1, in 10 frames and the A's winning the nightcap, 7 to 3. The New York Yankees-Boston Red Sox twin bill was rained out.

In the senior loop, the Cards grabbed back the lead by trouncing the incumbent Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 1 and 1 to 0. Max Lanier hunked up his fourth straight victory in the opener.

THREE INDIANS CALLED
The Chicago Cubs are in the worst shape ever, losing two to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6 to 5 in 14 innings and 3 to 2 in 11 innings, to hit a superb stride of .677 in games won and lost.

The Philadelphia Phillies-Brooklyn Dodgers games were washed out.

TURN TO LACROSSE

Kurowskis All Are Baseball Minded

Ray Kurowski, Second-Base Man At State College, Is Brother Of Cardinal Star

STATE COLLEGE, May 8.—Within the family circle "Whitey" Kurowski of the St. Louis Cardinals ranks second to his brother, Walter, as a hitter, according to Ray Kurowski, second baseman on the Penn State baseball team.

"We always thought Walter hit a longer ball than 'Whitey,'" Ray, a marine trainee here, said. "He identified the 'we' as the six Kurowski brothers—all of whom played baseball and three of whom are now in the armed services."

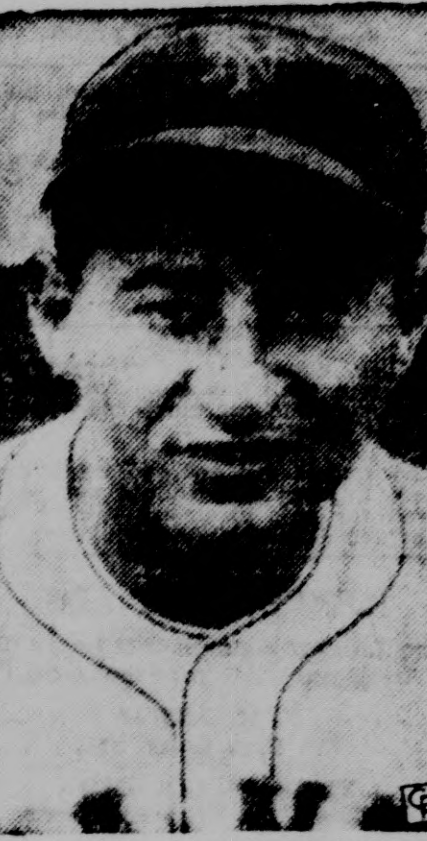

Walter, who at 26 is two years older than his major league kin and five years older than the Penn State marine trainee, formerly competed in football, basketball and baseball at Muhlenberg. He's now a chief specialist in the Navy, stationed at Bainbridge, Md.

STOCK MARKET IS UNCHANGED TODAY

Gyrations Of Park And Tilford Stock Only Feature In Monday Market

NEW YORK, May 8.—(INS)—The stock exchange today was primarily a story of the gyrations of Park & Tilford common stock.

The stock jumped 1 1/2 points at the start and then, toward the noon hour, began to fall by full points. At its high it had been a full point above Saturday's close of 94 1/2. At the bottom, 89, it was off 5 1/2. It subsequently recovered a part of this, but held below the last closing.

Austin Nichols issues acted in sympathy. The too, rose sharply at the opening and then went into the noon-time slump but movements here were much more limited in nature and the issues remained again on the day.

The rest of the list did little. Steels were unchanged, so were the motors and railroads. Blue chips were rarely traded. Oils held around the previous close.

Cotton was firm, grains were up 1/4 to 1/2 cent a bushel. Bonds were dull.

Navy In Need Of Radio Technicians

Men Between Seventeen And Fifty
Years Will Be Accepted
For Service

There is still an urgent need in the navy for radio technicians. Any man between 17 and 50, the age limits for the naval reserve, will be permitted to take this test at the New Castle Navy Recruiting Station any week day from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Men of 17 and those over 38 will be voluntarily enlisted as seamen, first class for training as radio technicians, if they pass the test. Men of draft age, 18 to 37 inclusive, who are assigned to the navy at the time of their pre-induction or physical fitness examination will be permitted to take the test and if successful, will be enlisted as seamen, first class, following their induction. Seamen, first class, two pay grades above apprentice seamen, receive a basic salary of $66.00 per month, plus all the regular allowances.

Men who are thus enlisted for training as radio technicians will first undergo the regular seaman's boot or indoctrination training period, after which they will be transferred to one of the navy's radio schools where they will begin a course of instruction lasting for ten months.

The physical requirements for this branch of naval service are somewhat less stringent than in other fields, and in many cases, men with minor physical defects will be accepted.

WITH VICTORY
GARDENERS
CHAS. G. LINDNER,
City Chairman,
State Council of Defense

HOW TO SECURE A GARDEN PLOT

The city is freely cooperating in this worthwhile project. They have arranged to give you all necessary information on city-owned lots available for victory gardens.

In order that it be reliable it is pertinent that this information be given at its source. A list of such plots may be seen at the city hall, third floor. Ask for Mr. Marakas and he will be glad to assist you in securing a plot near your residence.

All privately owned lots registered with the committee have been taken, but there is a long list of lots on record in the city hall.

The most common mistakes observed by victory garden supervisors are:

1. Too little succession planting, hence bare ground and precious growing time lost.
2. Too much of one thing grown. While the memory of the 1943 vegetable garden is still fresh, make a note of those crops which were overproduced and those of which too little were grown.
3. Failed to thin out rows. Crowded beets, carrots, turnips and onions won't develop properly.
4. Failed to keep down weeds by regular cultivation. Cultivate shallow frequently.
5. Failed to harvest crop at maturity. Size has little to do with ripeness. Beans in particular were the source of this mistake.
6. Had too much advice from well meaning but inexperienced enthusiasts.
7. Sowed too much of one thing and too early.
8. Bought too much seed, fertilizer and equipment.
9. Sowed seeds too thickly and too deep.
10. Planted too big an area.

What is your score on the above? Initial enthusiasm will not carry a garden through to a successful finish. No account of planning and hard work will produce a good garden unless the soil is favorable.

A proper seedbed means good plowing or spading and harrowing or raking. A complete fertilizer should be used along the rows according to recommendations of the manufacturer. Plant only the kinds and varieties you like if they are known to be adaptable to local conditions. Decide on the varieties and get the best seed possible.

Maintain a thorough weed control from start until crops are all eaten or saved for winter use. Attend victory garden clinics on the control of insects and plant diseases to be held in the near future.

Crimea were hurling futile assaults against Sevastopol. But throughout all, Moscow has maintained silence. The red armies may have been fighting in various locations, but it is more probable that they are preparing to fight.

With the opening of the allied offensives from the west and south, it is virtually a certainty that Marshal Stalin will hurl his red legions and everything they have got against the east wall of Hitler's fortress.

Where Will Blow Fall?

The second most common question relating to the Russian battle zone is where will the blow or blows fall? No one can answer that by guesswork.

Marshal Stalin might start an assault in the extreme north against Finland. It might be hurled at the Baltic states—Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. On the other hand, it might be directed at a terrific blow launched through Poland.

It is also possible that an assault from northern Bessarabia may be launched southward towards the Romanian oilfields.

The capacity of Stalin's red armies for offensive action seems to be limitless. One reason for that is because every wheel in the country is devoted to the service of supply and replenishment. That not only applies to all army equipment but to all farm rolling stock.

In general, speculation as to the places of major assault seems to have divided itself between one—a great offensive against Berlin through Poland, and two, one of equal magnitude aimed southward from Bessarabia against the Ploesti oilfields and the plains of the Danube.

The famed tower of Pisa leans 14 feet from the perpendicular.

House Committee Slashes Boost In Public Debt

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(INS)—

The House Ways and Means committee by unanimous vote today slashed from 50 to 30 billion dollars the administration's request for legislation increasing the public debt limit.

The committee action raised the debt limit from its present 210 billion dollars to a new limit of 240 billion, was taken after Republicans vigorously opposed the treasury limit of 260 billion. The action also came after Daniel W. Bell, undersecretary of the treasury had agreed that the lower limit would meet immediate needs if the administration could renew its request next March.

Bell told the committee the debt limit should be increased lest the government be forced to halt the Fifth War Loan drive beginning June 12.

Cheyenne Mayor In Laws Clutch

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 8.—(INS)—Mayor Ira L. Hanna of Cheyenne and three co-defendants convicted of soliciting and accepting bribes were held in Larimer county jail today.

A resolution declaring the office of mayor vacant was being drawn up. City Commission of Finance Bruce S. Jones said.

Hanna, former Police Chief Jess Exdall and policemen E. K. Violette and Gerald J. Morris were convicted on charges they solicited and accepted bribes of $100 on two occasions from Mrs. Lola West, a Cheyenne tavern keeper.

Hanna and Exdall were sentenced to serve from seven to 10 years in the Wyoming State prison. Violette was sentenced to serve two to three years and Morris to two years.

Nature was presenting its best spring show on Sunday. Practically all fruit trees are now in full bloom as well as many plants and other varieties of trees, including dogwood.

White pennies which were a long time in reaching this area in general circulation now seem to be steadily increasing.

Here's another special week to be observed, in case you keep up on such special events. It is "physical fitness" week in Pennsylvania designated as such by the Pennsylvania State Association for Health and begins on May 15.

Steady rains of recent days have given the lawns around the city a big jump on the lawnmower pushers. Grass has been growing at a rapid rate in the past few days. Likewise the dandelions.

ESTIMATE 2,000 PLANES ATTACK NAZI CAPITAL

Normandy coast. All of the attacks were concentrated, the air ministry said.

Batter Chemical Works

Planes of the bomber command also battered the German chemical center of Leverkusen, six miles north of Cologne, and laid mines in enemy waters.

The RAF craft which struck France hammered a Nazi airfield, administration building and an ammunition dump near Rennes. They attacked an airfield and buildings at Nantes and Tours, and an ammunition dump at Salbris, 35 miles south of Orleans.

Nine British craft were reported missing from the night operations. The morning operations in the non-stop pre-invasion bombardment of Europe got under way immediately upon the return to England of Royal Air Force bombers which raided targets in German-occupied territory by night to follow up yesterday's record two-way daylight smash.

Huge Forces Involved

In vast operations in daylight yesterday from Britain and Italy an estimated 4,500 American and British planes, battered Germany, France, Belgium and targets in the Balkans. By far the heaviest raid was made against objectives at Berlin by some 2,000 fortress and Liberator bombers and supporting fighter craft. Multiple squadrons of British and American craft tore relentlessly at communications at other points on the continent.

An estimated 3,750 craft put out from Britain alone and unloaded some 3,550 American tons of high explosives in the gigantic softening up operation against the European fortress.

Ploesti Oil Fields Production Hard Hit By Bombing

The productive capacity of the Ploesti oil fields in Romania has been reduced to less than 25 per cent of normal capacity as the result of Allied bombings. Lieut. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, commander in chief of the Mediterranean Air Force, declared today.

The Spitfires while on patrol spotted 18 Messerschmitts and dived from an altitude of 7,000 feet to give battle. They quickly sent nine of the enemy craft blazing down into the woods which fringe Lake Bracciano.

Two allied heavy bombers and 12 other craft were reported missing. Eight Spitfires of the first tactical air force shot down nine German Messerschmitts in a four-minute battle just north of Rome.
